THE announcement in the American papers brought by the present steamer that Mr. W The great drawback under which we labour kougs are under that officer's command out here, is that it is almost impossible to make people in America and in Europe aware of what actually are the opportunities on the one hand, and the difficulties on the other of foreign intercourse with China; Statements on both sides are of the most exaggerated nature. To jump at the conclusion that, because we have to treat China as a nation, we are bound to treat her precisely as if she were a thoroughly organised Empire, headed by a Government in whom we could place entire confidence, is simply to ignore quence, to court those difficulties which must invariably arise when people persist in acting without due consideration of times and circumstances. The facts connected with foreign intercourse with this country are such as nobody can grasp who has not an opportunity of personally investigating them. They are unique, and cannot be explained as is too often attempted, by may arguments from analogy. A short residence in the country will do more to give a stateman true idea than volumes of diplomatic despatches, and it may be fairly hoped that this will be the result of the visit which Mr. W. H. ONE HUNDRED EMIGRANTS BURNT A very and occurrence is reported at Rio de anciro, namely, the burning of an emigrant ship and the consequent loss of over 100 passengers on board. The details of this terrible catastrophe are given by the captain of the French harque Adel Louise, who succeeded in saving some persons from the ill-fated vesselthe Manin Barravino—on its way from Genom for Montevideo, with 130 passengers and 21 of a orew. It appears that on the 27th July about 9 p.m., being abreast of Rio de Janeiro, the Adele Louise sighted the Barravino in flames, assistance. What followed is described by the Telegrafe Maritimo-" The spectacle presented by the burning ship was extremely awful; the cries of pass ngors, the flames leaping out on all sides, the women shricking frantically, some of their jumping overboard, others holding on and wont down. It was almost impossible to render assistance, but the barque succeded in taking off eight persons, including the captain and math.
